The Wages and Employment

Riding and general gambling in the freight cars, hobnob shipper and railroad man and occasional changes are in store, so far as can be ascertained, for railroad workers and shippers under the railroad labor board decision, which went into effect on April 1, and which, in addition to bringing wages and working conditions of a large number of railroad employees under the jurisdiction of the labor board, provides for the establishment of a new national railroad adjustment board, the personnel of which is to be named within three days, and 21 days thereafter is to begin hearing cases and disputes which may be referred to it.

A meeting of the General Freight Agents of the railroads entering the city, Minneapolis and Western railroads met with the Chamber of Commerce committee, there were present Messrs. One hundred and forty couples attended the second assembly ball of Post No. 2, G. A. R., at the Palmer last evening. The programme included eleven dances, with an intermission for supper.

The grand jury yesterday indicted Carolyn Jameson for the murder of John Harris. Lewis was arraigned by entering the usual plea of guilty to avoid trying to obtain proof. Sentence for these cases will probably follow indictment this morning.

The amusements yesterday, as observed by Sherman Clarence Hastings, was as follows: Opera house, 2 o'clock, 20 shots; after 7 o'clock, 27; 8 o'clock, 27; 9 o'clock, 27; 10 o'clock, 27; 11 o'clock, 27; 12 o'clock, 27; 1 o'clock, 27; 2 o'clock, 27; 3 o'clock, 27; 4 o'clock, 27; 5 o'clock, 27; 6 o'clock, 27. Total, 324.

At 2 o'clock yesterday morning a burglar was discovered in the house of Reuben Darnell, No. 2311 Indiana-ave., but he made his escape before an alarm could be given, taking with him his watch and other valuables. Officer Arnold Bissell of the Cottage Grove police station arrested the burglar, who gave the name Jim Connolly, resident in No. [illegible].

Thomas S. Dickson, formerly in the employ of the Sun Mutual Life Insurance Company, was taken up in the Harrison street station yesterday and taken to the Harrison street police court, charged with stealing $100 from the company. He left there several weeks ago with $100 and is charged by the company with embezzlement. He was arrested in Indiana, U. C. He is charged with embezzlement.

Annie Castle, No. 1, Griffith-st. (the Gilt-Edge), charged her fellow-occupant Ida Hayes, colored, with inflicting serious injuries upon her during an altercation at the latter's house of ill-fame, No. 1, Griffith-st., on the morning of the 23d inst. Ida, it appears, was in bed at the time, and the first intimation she had of the assault was a blow on the head with a heavy boot, which was thrown at her by Annie. She jumped out of bed, and, although severely injured, succeeded in getting her assailant down and choking her into insensibility. The latter was then taken to the station-house, and the former to the Harrison Street Police Station to be prosecuted.

A number of gentlemen residing and prominent citizens of Chicago had consulted to entertain Gov. Stephens during his stay here and present him with an address, but have been prevented from so doing by a cog in the machinery. The address was forwarded to the Governor yesterday, signed by Gen. U. S. Grant, Lieut.-Gen. Sherman, U. S. Grant, Jr., Admiral Porter, Generals Sheridan, Logan, Howard, Hancock, Meade, Thomas, Schofield, Terry, Augur, Ord, Gibbon, Canby, Custer, Crook, Pope, Rosecrans, Hazen, Custis, Dodge, Commissioners, and A. Cobb.

James Sampson, Thomas Wallace, and D. Gregory, the owners of the gambling-house at No. 110 Clark-street, were defendants in a civil suit brought by Lazarus S. Pottenger of New York to recover Lucy's court yesterday. Pottenger swore that the three were named in order to put in the bill which was sent to him, and a demurrer to the bill of complaint was sustained with costs.

Thomas Gilbride left his home in Chicago, March 3, for the transportation of Chicago and St. Louis, but could get no further to his destination than Joliet. Until he took his seat in the Board of the Chicago Drive to a man who was on the road to Wilmington, but the board was full yesterday. The poor man took a ticket at Joliet, and, on the strength of Mr. Gilbride's story, got the train conductor to pass him through to Chicago. The latter, however, refused to do so, and the man was put off the train at Lemont. Gilbride has been found and sent to Joliet.

At 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon the body of a man was seen floating in the lake near the Chicago station on the south side. The body had been in the lake for some time, and could not be identified. The dead man was apparently about 40 years old, the face was covered with a dark beard, and the clothing was of dark cloth, and consisted of a dark coat, vest, and pants, and a pair of rubber boots. The body was found by Patrick Ryan, of No. 1 Canal-st., who reported the matter to the police. The coroner will hold an inquest over the remains this morning.

At 2:30 o'clock yesterday morning a fight occurred in the Lincoln Block cellar on Fourth-street, but on the arrival of the police, who, carrying with it an immense amount of efficacy, the cellar was found, and although several persons were found hanging around the premises, no one could be identified as having been engaged in the fight. The police, however, succeeded in arresting Thomas Ryan, who was found in the cellar, and who was locked up at the Harrison-street station, charged with being a suspicious character.

Deputies in consequence of heavily arrears will be removed on the U. S. Navy, and the United Commissioners commission will give a successful replay today.

The Case of the Jackson Boulevard Office Cases.

Georgetown, Ill., April 25.—[Special.]—The case of Jackson J. L. Bonnell came up before Judge Cochran this morning, and was argued all day. It was agreed by counsel that the attorney-general on behalf of the State, the principal arguments were made by the State, Senator Cannon for the petitioners and Judge Bonnell for Bonnell. The principal contention was that the Supreme Court had no jurisdiction in the matter of the writ of mandamus issued by Judge Bonnell ordering the auditor to issue warrants for the salaries of the Supreme Court judges. The auditor refused to issue the warrants on the ground that the Supreme Court had no jurisdiction in the matter, and that the writ of mandamus was issued by Judge Bonnell without authority of law. The case will be argued further tomorrow morning.

FLOUR AND WHEAT.

Reports from the Mills of Minneapolis—Waiting for War Developments.

Minneapolis, Minn., April 25.—[Special.]—The Northwestern Miller will say today: The mills are now grinding 45,000 barrels of flour per week. The production of last week was 44,000 barrels, averaging 6,300 barrels daily. Against 50,000 barrels the preceding week, and 50,000 for the corresponding time in 1894. On the first day the mills have been allowed a ten days' market, and prices quite "tough." The output of the mills long ago sold ahead to consumers, all but one of the mills have to operate extensively, and the general opinion is in favor of sub-normal grind as the exigencies of the case.

The wheat is about in, parties connected to Minneapolis, as well as the mills, both east and north, to handle.

Minneapolis, April 25, 1895, cash to 1:30 p.m.

No. 1 hard, April 25, 1895, cash to 1:30 p.m.

No. 1 northern, April 25, 1895, cash to 1:30 p.m.

There is considerable guessing in the Northwest and among millers and grain men here as to what the war developments may mean to the wheat trade. Many look for higher prices, and others think that the consumption will be curtailed. The latter opinion seems to be the most general, and the belief is that the consumption will be curtailed. The latter opinion seems to be the most general, and the belief is that the consumption will be curtailed.
